

Unveiling of Civil Rights Marker in Centennial Park

Join us for the official unveiling of a historical marker commemorating Centennial Art Center's important role in Nashville's Civil Rights History.

March 23, 2022 at 11:00 a.m.
Centennial Art Center
Centennial Park
301 25th Ave North
Nashville, TN 37203

Constructed in 1932, Centennial Art Center was once the location of one of the city's premier swimming facilities. The "Whites Only" pool and bathhouse shut down abruptly in 1961 in response to efforts to desegregate the pool led by two African American students – Kwame Leo Lillard and Matthew Walker Jr.

Hear more and learn more during this very important event for the city and Centennial Park.

Call 615.862.8442 for more information.

